

April 18, 2011

Joseph McDonnell joins Meadow Partners as Vice President

Meadow Partners today announced that Joe McDonnell has joined the firm as a Vice President. Mr. McDonnell, who will be based in the firm's New York City office, will be responsible for the acquisition and asset management of real estate assets in the United States.

Prior to joining Meadow Partners, Mr. McDonnell worked as a Vice President in the Credit Solutions Group of Deutsche Bank, where he focused on the origination, trading, and risk management of a broad range of credit investments, including real estate, corporate, securitized, and structured instruments in the United States. Mr. McDonnell received a B.S. in Chemical Engineering from the University of Notre Dame.

Timothy Yantz, Partner of Meadow Partners said: "Having known and worked with Joe for several years, we are all very excited that he has decided to join our team. We look forward to pursuing future investment opportunities together with continued success."

Meadow Partners is currently investing Meadow Real Estate Fund I LP, which was formed in 2009 to pursue the opportunistic purchase of real estate assets in New York City and London.

For more information, email: information@meadowpartners.com