

November 2nd, 2009; Didier Colin joins Meadow Partners as Director

Meadow Partners today announced that Didier Colin has joined the firm as a Director. Mr. Colin, who will be based in the firm's London office, will be involved in the company's investment and asset management activities in Europe and the United States.

Prior to joining Meadow Partners, Mr. Colin worked for Noonday Asset Management LLP, a discretionary investment manager to the Farallon Funds, where he focused on investments in public real estate debt and equity instruments as well as in private real estate assets in Europe. Prior to joining Noonday Asset Management LLP, Mr. Colin was an Associate with Deutsche Bank in their real estate private equity group, where he worked on the acquisition and management of a broad range of real estate asset, portfolio and corporate investments across Europe. He also worked for Credit Suisse First Boston in the Mergers & Acquisitions Department. Mr. Colin is a graduate of Paris-Dauphine University where he earned a Masters Degree in Finance.

Jeffrey M. Kaplan, Founder and Managing Partner of Meadow Partners said: "We are pleased that Didier will be joining our team in London. His breadth of knowledge will enhance the firm's European investment activities for years to come."

J. Andrew McDaniel, Partner said: "I am excited about Meadow's ability to recruit an employee of Didier's quality and experience. It demonstrates our high level of commitment to building a first-class property investment and asset management firm. I look forward to working with him to pursue investments for Meadow Real Estate Fund I and future investment vehicles."

Meadow Partners' London office is located at 29 Farm Street, London W1J 5RL.

For more information, email: info@meadowpartners.com