Timothy P. Yantz joins Meadow Partners as Partner

Meadow Partners today announced that Timothy P. Yantz has joined the firm as a Partner. Mr. Yantz, who will be based in the New York office, will also be admitted as a Member of the Investment Committee of Meadow Partners and will be responsible for the Company's investment activities in the United States.

Prior to joining Meadow Partners, Mr. Yantz was a Director in the San Francisco office of Westbrook Partners, a global real estate investment firm, responsible for the acquisition and asset management of real estate assets and portfolios on the West Coast of the United States. He has also worked in the New York office for Westbrook and for Charlesbank Capital Partners, a corporate and real estate private equity firm. During his career, Mr. Yantz has been responsible for or overseen the acquisition of over $2 billion of real estate assets and portfolios in the United States, ranging across all major property types.

Jeffrey M. Kaplan, Founder of Meadow Partners said: "After several years of successfully working together, I am pleased that Tim has agreed to join us in our effort to create an energetic and well-respected real estate investment platform. His relationships, experience and knowledge should greatly add to the depth of our management team, and we look forward to working with him as we continue to identify attractive investment opportunities around the world."

Meadow Partners' corporate headquarters is located at 55 East 59th Street, 17th Floor, New York, NY 10022. For more information, email: info@meadowpartners.com.
