Meadow Partners announces opening of Europe office, appointment of J. Andrew McDaniel as Partner

Meadow Partners today announced that J. Andrew McDaniel has joined the firm as a Partner. The hiring of Mr. McDaniel coincides with the firm's expansion into Europe and the opening of a local office in London. In addition to heading the firm's Europe office, he will also be admitted as a Member of the Investment Committee of Meadow Partners. Mr. McDaniel will be responsible for daily management activities in Europe along with the oversight of the firm's investment and asset management activities in those markets.

Prior to joining Meadow Partners, Mr. McDaniel was a Director in the London office of Westbrook Partners, a global real estate investment firm, responsible for the acquisition and asset management of real estate assets and portfolios in Europe. He has also worked for Charlesbank Capital Partners, a corporate and real estate private equity firm, and Wachovia Securities in the Corporate Finance and Mergers & Acquisitions Department where he covered public and private real estate companies in the United States. During his career, Mr. McDaniel has been responsible for and/or overseen the acquisition of over £1.7 billion of real estate assets and portfolios in Europe.

Jeffrey M. Kaplan, Founder of Meadow Partners said: "I am very pleased that Andrew has agreed to join our management team and continue our relationship of successfully investing together in the European real estate markets. We are very much committed to investing in these markets long-term and believe that adding someone of Andrew's caliber and experience to our team gives us a strong competitive advantage and access to valuable local information and compelling investment opportunities. We look forward to working with him as we build our European business."

Meadow Partners' corporate headquarters is located at 55 East 59th Street, 17th Floor, New York, NY 10022. For more information, email: info@meadowpartners.com.
